29th International Symposium on Ion-Atom Collisions

The ISIAC brings together world-leading experts in the field of atomic collision physics involving heavy projectiles (ions).

Topics:

- Fundamental processes in ion-atom and ion-molecule collisions
- Ion-surface and ion-solid interactions
- Fragmentation of molecules and clusters
- Ion-biomolecule interactions
- Laser-assisted collisions
- Atomic collision processes
- New developments, techniques and instrumentation
- Applications, including hadron therapy

ISIAC is a satellite of the International Conference on Photonic, Electronic and Atomic Collisions.

International Advisory Committee

- Toshiyuki Azuma (RIKEN, Japan)
- Manolis Benis (Univ. Ioannina, Greece)
- Amine Cassimi (CIMAP, France)
- Alain Dubois (Sorbonne Univ., France)
- Daniel Fischer (Missouri S&T, USA)
- Omar Fojon (IFIR, Argentina)
- Pedro Luis Grande (UFRGS, Brazil)
- Laszlo Gulyas (ATOMKI, Hungary)
- Clara Illescas (UAM, Spain)
- Alisher Kadyrov (Curtin Univ., Australia)
- Xinwen Ma (CAS, China)
- Ladislau Nagy (Babeş-Bolyai Univ., Romania)
- Rita Prosmi (IFF, Spain)
- Markus Schoeffler (Goethe Univ., Germany)
- Michael Schulz (Missouri S&T, USA)
- Lokesh Tribedi (TIFR, India)
- Alexander Voitkiv (HHU, Germany)
- Wania Wolff (UFRJ, Brazil)
- Yong Wu (IAPCM, China)

Local Organizing Committee

- Manabu Saito (Kyoto Univ., Co-Chair)
- Takuya Majima (Kyoto Univ., Co-Chair)
- Toshiyuki Azuma (RIKEN)
- Makoto Imai (Kyoto Univ.)
- Kunikazu Ishii (Nara Women's Univ.)
- Yoshiaki Kumagai (Nara Women's Univ.)
- Yoichi Nakai (RIKEN)
- Kaoru Nakajima (Kyoto Univ.)
- Shigeo Tomita (Tsukuba Univ.)
- Hidetsugu Tsuchida (Kyoto Univ.)
